

CAREER COACHING IN THE CITY & CANARY WHARF

City Professional Career Coaching

A large proportion of our time is spent at work, particularly in wholesale financial services. London is international, drawing the best talent from all over the world. With the right planning it can be a very exciting, demanding and, for the successful very rewarding career. It is also extremely competitive encouraging a “hire and fire” culture putting pressures which distorts perspective and strains your job and private life. It is time that you take a proactive approach to your career.

I work with people who want promotion, bigger bonuses and to progress beyond glass ceilings. I also work with those who are not sure what they want to do and want to explore options whether that is at the beginning, part way through or towards the end of their careers. We look at not just the tactical issues of getting the next job, whether that be internally or with a new employer, but also the effects that this will have on one’s career. Good planning and good execution are essential in this competitive market. Classic topics that we address include:

- ↳ Career Review
- ↳ Bonus Increase
- ↳ Promotion
- ↳ Exploring Options
- ↳ Starting a New Job
- ↳ Interview Preparation
- ↳ Curriculum Vitae Review
- ↳ Managing Your Manager

I have been working with City professionals on both the buy and sell sides since 1997. Having been a stockbroker and fund manager, I am a fellow of the Chartered Institute of Securities & Investment and have an MBA, I understand the City. Also I have set up and run a number of companies as well as gained advanced coaching skills originally in California. It is the combination of City, business and coaching experience that makes me a particularly effective coach.
